Greetings

A : How are you doing today?

B : I'm doing great. What about you?

A : I'm absolutely lovely, thank you.?

B : Everything's been good with you

A : I haven't been better. How about yourself?

B : I started school recently.

A : Where are you going to school?

B : I'm going to PCC.

A : How do you like it so far?

B : I like it so far. My classes are pretty good right now

A : I wish you luck.

B : Thanks a lot.

Meeting New Students

A : How are things with you?

B : Not too bad. How about yourself?

A : Not bad.

B : I'm glad to hear that.

A : Have you been going to PCC long?

B : I've only been here two years. How about yourself?

A : I just started this year.

B : Do you like it?

A : It's fine for right now.

B : You do not like it, right?

A : Once I'm finished with my GE, it should get better.

B : I felt the same way my first year.

Greeting an Old Friend at a Party

A : Hi, I haven't seen you in a while.

B : Yes, it has been a long time!

A : How long has it been since we last saw each other?

B : I think that we last saw each other two years ago.

A : What have you been doing for the past two years?

B : I have been going to graduate school at USC.

A : What are you majoring in?

B : I am studying international communications.

A : You should easily be able to find a job with that major.

B : I am counting on being able to get a good job.

Greeting a Visitor to Your House

A : Welcome, Ron, come on in!

B : Hi, Malia ! What a nice home!

A : We enjoy it too!

B : How long have you lived here?

A : About four years now.

B : Well , it is very beautiful.

A : Ron, have a seat and I'll get us something to drink.

B : Good ! I am really thirsty. You know it really is hot outside!

A : I have lemonade, iced tea, and mango juice.

B : Mango juice would be perfect. Thank you!

Meeting New People

A: Are you new in town?

B: Yes, I am new in town.

A: It's very nice to meet you.

A: It's nice to meet you too.

B: How long has it been since you moved here?

A: It's been a month.

B: Isn't it beautiful?

A: It is absolutely beautiful here.

B: Do you like it here so far?

A: I actually do like it here.

B: Let me welcome you to the neighborhood.

A: Thank you. I'm glad to be here.

Haven't We Met Before?

A: Hi. Uh, haven't we met before? You look so familiar.

B: Yeah. We met on campus last week, [Yeah!] and you asked me the same question.

A: No, but you got the first letter right.

B: Oh, oh really? I'm sorry, but I'm terrible with names. But, but, but . . . Let me guess. It's Sherry, right?

A: I know, I know. It's on the tip of my tongue. Wait. Uh, Sandy, Susan. [Nope. So, was I that memorable?] Wait, wait. It's Sharon.

B: You got it . . . and only on the fourth try.

A: So, well, Sh . . . I mean Sharon. How are you?

B: Not bad. And what was your name?

A: It's Ben, but everyone calls me B.J. And, uh, what do you do, Sh . . . Sharon?

B: I'm a graduate student majoring in TESL.

A: Uh, TESL . . . What's that?

B: It stands for teaching English as a second language. I want to teach English to non-native speakers overseas.

A: Oh, yeah. I'm pretty good at that English grammar. You know, verbs and adjectives, and uh . . . Hey, that's sound really exciting. And do you need some type of specific degree or experience to do that? I mean could I do something like that?

B: Well, most employers overseas are looking for someone who has at least a Bachelor's degree and one or two years of experience. [Oh!] And what do you do? Are you a student on campus?

A: Yeah, but, uh . . . I guess I'm mulling over the idea of going into accounting or international business, but I guess I'm now leaning towards a degree in marketing.

B: Oh, uh, . . . Well, I have to run. I have a class in ten minutes.

A: Oh, okay. And, uh, by the way, there's this, uh, dance on campus at the student center tonight, and I was wondering if you'd . . . you know . . . like to come along.

B: Oh really? Well, perhaps . . .

B: Okay, well, bye.
